

HOLIDAY WORK

S.6 GEOGRAPHY (2)

1. To what extent have geographical factors favoured the development of fishing in Africa's in land water bodies?
2. Account for the development on the fishing industry in either the South East Pacific or the North East Atlantic fishing grounds.
3. With reference to any one country from either the North West Atlantic, discuss the impact in the fishing industry to the development of the country.
4. Examine the challenges to the development of the fishing industry in tropical Africa.
5. (a) Discuss the problems facing the fishing industry in either Norway or Angola.
(b) Examine the measures being taken to overcome the problems in the country mentioned in 5(a) above.
6. In developing countries it's not lack of physical resources which is primarily responsible for the low levels of industrial development. Discuss.
7. With reference to either one developed or developing country, assess the significance of mineral resources as a basis for industrial development.
8. Examine the influence of industrial inputs and markets on changes in the location of manufacturing industries in either USA or South Africa.
9. Account for the changing location of industries in USA.

10. Discuss the problems hindering industrial development in anyone developing country.
11. Account for the development of forestry in any one country from either the temperate or tropical region.
- 12.(a) Distinguish between temperate and tropical rainforests.
(b) Examine the challenges faced by forestry in any one country from either the temperate or tropical region.
13. Assess the contribution of forestry to the development of either Gabon or Sweden.
14. To what extent have physical factors influenced the location of forests in either Canada or Swaziland ?
15. Discuss the problems facing the development of transport routes in Africa.
16. Assess the importance of railway transport in the economic development of any one country in Africa.
17. Examine the contribution of either the Rhine water way or the St. Lawrence Seaway to the development of the respective countries.
18. The rapid population increase in the developing countries is more of a liability than an asset” Examine the validity of the statement with reference to any one country in Africa.
19. Population distribution is closely related to physical factors in the less developed countries. Discuss.